1980–1985   TEACHING ASSISTANT, LECTURER. Department of Mathematics.

MISCELLANEOUS   New Mexico; Texas (Selected)

1972–1981   LIVING BATCH BOOKSTORE, LTD. Albuquerque, New Mexico. Experience in all aspects of retail book sales. Witnessed last-ditch efforts of the Beat Generation to survive under the New Mexican desert sun.

1975–1977   HIGHER PLAINS ORGANIC VEGETABLES. Edgewood, New Mexico. Organic Vegetable Farming. East of the Sandia Mountains! A mere peon engaged in back-breaking production and sales of a wide range of cool-weather organic vegetables. We made a killing with snow peas. Personally drafted by-laws and filed for incorporation of Albuquerque Growers' Market, 1976.

1971   THE EVELYN. A shrimp boat out of Brownsville, Texas. Primary job: shrimp header (using one's thumbs as quickly as possible to detach shrimps' heads and throwing their bodies into a salted bin, avoiding neighboring crab pinchers as much as possible). Concrete experience of bottom-of-the-barrel life on planet Earth. Much vomit over starboard side. Courted death by repeatedly being too stupid to get out of the way of dropping trawl net. After two weeks, stank more than I've ever stunk before or after. Awoke from dogmatic slumber. Philosophy or bust.
