Welcome from Chris Burkett, Ed.D.
Executive Director for Student Services
Gamecock EdQuarters

As fall finally arrives, many of you are starting to plan for the Spring 2025 semester. Please remember that the Gamecock EdQuarters team is here to help you. Located in Wardlaw 113, our team includes Undergraduate Advisors, Graduate Student Service Coordinators, Clinical Placement Coordinators, the Teaching Fellows Director, and the Recruitment and Engagement Directors. We are dedicated to supporting all students, staff, and faculty with their needs in the College of Education. Our mission is to recruit, retain, and prepare education professionals through mentoring, guidance, and support. We embody this mission every day and look forward to assisting you. Feel free to stop by and see us!

Graduate Students:

The Graduate team has begun sending out monthly "Information Wednesday" emails to let you know important information. If you have any additional questions about that email, please feel free to reach out to them.
